

PARTNERSHIP

INTEGRITY

As a leader in the wood products distribution industry, Weber Plywood & Lumber is dedicated to making a difference in your business. We are committed to delivering excellence in quality and service.

Whatever our customers need, whenever they need it, we anticipate their requirements and strive to exceed their expectations. From inventory to service, we go the extra mile to make the process as efficient and cost effective as possible.

Weber is committed to providing the highest quality hardwood lumber and plywood products available.

We understand that for our customers to be competitive, we have to be competitive and deliver products to meet their needs. Not only delivering quality, but value.

We go beyond inventory, supply and distribution by sharing our vast knowledge of wood and our customers' requirements, adding value to every product. Our customers count on us to be their partner, and it's a commitment we take very seriously.

Knowledge adds value.
